DETAILED ACTION

Continuation Data

1. Examiner notes that Applicant claims priority of US Serial No. 09/134,688 in that the 5 instant application is filed as a Continuation-in-part application of 09/134,688.

Amendment

2. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on December 13, 2004. No claims were 10 canceled, amended or newly added in the amendment. Currently, claims 1-6, 20-23, 26-35, and 40-43 remain for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the 15 basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

- 20 (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-6, 26-30, and 32-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by 25 Gelbman (US 6,753,830, hereinafter “Gelbman”).

Re claims 1-4, 6, 26, and 29, Gelbman discloses an electronic, radio frequency label 16
(col. 2, lines 10+; col. 4, lines 26+) comprising a display means 14 which displays either

Art Unit: 2876

machine-readable or human-readable information. The label obviously displays information relevant to the items on which the label is attached. The displayable item-related information includes item-specific information including location (col. 5, lines 60+). Some item-related information such as lot number or manufacturer can certainly be used as a criterion for 5 classifying items.

Re claim 5, the information stored in the label is prestored, preloaded or uploaded in the label (col. 4, lines 52-62).

Re claim 28, the items can be arranged in a series before they are interrogated.

Re claims 27, 30 and 32, in another embodiment, the location can be a cart (col. 21, lines 10 33-50).

Re claims 33-35, the locations can be a shelf (col. 14, line 66 – col. 15, line 7).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 31 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be 15 allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 20-23 and 40-43 are allowed.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the claims are directed at RFID system, particularly embodied in library materials wherein the items
20 are identified, located and shelved. The method for interrogating location of a tag by entering location into the tag and receiving signal is not disclosed or suggested by the cited references. Passing the cart through the tunnel as recited in claim 31 is also patentable over the prior arts.

Art Unit: 2876

Claims 40-43 are patentable in that a card is used in locating the item of interest wherein the card is encoded with item information, and the card is read by the card reader, and location from the card reader to the item is provided set forth in the claims.

Conclusion

I. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Massaro (US 6,749,116); Forsythe et al. (US 6,269,572); Peratoner (US 6,570,492) disclose radio frequency tag/label systems used in various embodiments. Applicant is respectfully suggested to carefully review these references.
